

Directory of Local Authors & Illustrators Who Visit Schools 2022-2023

ABOUT

The Directory of Local Authors & Illustrators Who Visit Schools 2022-2023 has been created to streamline the process for schools, libraries and other organizations to reach children's authors & illustrators from the Central-Coastal California and Los Angeles regions. These authors and illustrators conduct assemblies, workshops, after school programs, and do other appearances in the community.

Authors in the Directory are all published by mainstream publishers, are members of the Society of Children's Book Writers & Illustrators (SCBWI) and are available to schools during the current school year. They reside either in the SCBWI Central-Coastal Region or the SCBWI Los Angeles Region.

The Directory is available in two forms --as a PDF and as an Excel spreadsheet – with clickable website and email addresses.
