Lisa Wilcut: What it takes to bring a picture book to life in another language and culture

Get your translation and picture book inspiration with distinguished Japan-based writer/translator, Lisa Wilcut. Lisa recently translated the enchanting Japanese picture book Akira ga akete ageru karaby renowned picture book creator Yoshitake Shinsuke - released as I Can Open That (UK edition) and I Can Open It For You (US edition).

The original text includes numerous onomatopoeia—a challenge for even experienced translators. Hear how Lisa more than met that challenge and several others in this comprehensive look at what it takes to bring a picture book to life in another language and culture.

This event will be in English.

*If you are attending from outside of Japan you can check your local time here.
