

Join us for an in-person sketch and word crawl

Sunday, 28th July, 11:00 am - 2:00 pm (JST)

If you're in Tokyo this weekend, grab your hat, art supplies and writing gear and join us for a day out in the lovely Asukayama Park and a visit to the Paper Museum.

Meet up Sunday, July 28th, 11:00 am at Otsuka Station (on the Yamanote Line) From Otsuka Station we'll take the Toden-Arakawa line to the Asukayama Park (about a 10 minute journey). This is the last remaining tram line in Tokyo! (If you'd rather meet us at the museum let us know beforehand).

We'll spend some time in the museum, take a stroll around the park and find a sit spot where we can write or draw. Over lunch we can share our ideas and sketches.

Be prepared for the Tokyo summer weather - hats, water bottles, sun-screen and mosquito repellent might be useful. Family and friends are welcome to join.

If you'd like to come along you can register on the website via the green button, or email Mari Boyle, japan-ra@scbwi.org
